

Table 1: Uninsured Seniors in Maine Pay Higher Prices for Prescription Drugs than Purchasers in Other Countries.

| Drug     | Manufacturer                          | Quantity           | Avg. Foreign Price(Monthly Supply) | Maine Price(Monthly Supply) | Price Differential |         |
|----------|---------------------------------------|--------------------|--|---------------------------------|--------------------|---------|
|          |                                       |                    |  |                                 | Dollar             | Percent |
| Prilosec | Astra/MerckTAPPharmaceuticals | 20 mg, 30 tab.     | $54.98                                | $116.01                        | $61.03            | 111%    |
| Prevacid |                                       | 30 mg, 30 tab.     | $58.49                                | $121.14                        | $62.65            | 107%    |
| Celebrex | Pharmacia andUpjohn               | 200 mg, 30tab. | $37.51                                | $77.91                         | $40.40            | 108%    |
| Lipitor  | Merck                                 | 10 mg, 30 tab      | $38.24                                | $62.29                         | $24.05            | 63%     |
| Zocor    | Pfizer                                | 5 mg, 60 tab.      | $70.36                                | $107.70                        | $37.34            | 53%     |
| Average  |                                       |                    |  |                                 | 88%                |         |